SERVICE HOURS

One of the most integral elements of the Confirmation journey is to prepare the Candidate for entering and participating in Parish Life and the Church universal. Parish Life may extend beyond the boundaries of our Church campus, but serves to spread the mission of the Church-sharing and living our faith within parish ministries and other church related organizations.

The Confirmation Candidate, as part of their sacramental preparation, will learn and experience serving our faith community by performing a minimum of 20 hours per Confirmation year. The service may be completed within an established parish ministry such as: Faith Formation, St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, 40 days for Life, Altar Service, Parish Music Ministry, Being part of Establishing a Parish Youth Ministry, Service Events within Youth Ministry, Teen Leader for Summer Vacation Bible Camp, etc. Community service events held at school or with other groups may also qualify. Please check with the Director of Religious Formation if you have concerns about the student's activity qualifying to fulfill this requirement.

2) Our ministry will try to provide some events for your student to fulfill this requirement. However, do not count on us to provide all your qualifying service activities.

3) Participating in ONE WALK LA and Requiem Mass for the Unborn fulfills 10 service hours.

4) Participating in the presentation of our LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS can provide 10 service hours if you attend all rehearsals in addition to the presentation itself. All Confirmation students must attend the Stations of the Cross on the presentation date, however only participating in the presentation itself provides service hours.

5) The student must complete their hours within a minimum of two different service opportunities. (e.g., One Walk LA and Vacation Bible Camp).

6) ALL Service Hours must be signed off at the time service is performed by the adult leader supervising the event. The adult must have personally observed or served alongside the student. Service Hour forms are available in the RE Office or online at the parish website.

7) Service hours must be completed and submitted to the RE OFFICE by SUNDAY, April 25, 2020

I have read and understand the requirements of the SERVICE HOUR element of the Confirmation preparation process.
